Places of Assembly

The House of Representatives will convene at 10:30 a.m. on Wednesday, January 20, and proceed in a body to the President's Platform and be seated on the right of the Platform.

The Senate will convene at 10:30 a.m. on Wednesday, January 20, and proceed in a body to the President's Platform and be seated on the left of the Platform.

The Governors of the States will assemble in the Senate Conference Room to be escorted to the President's Platform.

The Ambassadors and Ministers of Foreign Countries will assemble in the Senate Reception Room, to be escorted to the President's Platform.

Members of the President's Cabinet will assemble in the President's Room to be escorted to the President's Platform.

The Chief Justice of the United States and the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court will assemble in the Office of the Secretary of the Senate, to be escorted to the President's Platform.

When these and distinguished visitors are seated at designated places on the President's Platform, the Committee on Arrangements will escort the President and the Vice-President-elect to the Inaugural Platform.

Entrance

Cards of admission to the Senate Wing will be good only at the door beneath the arch under the east steps of the Senate Wing.

The eastern door of the Senate Wing will be opened at 10 o'clock a.m. to those holding cards of admission. Persons presenting themselves at any other entrance will be refused admission.

Tickets

Tickets to those sections of the Inaugural Stands, designated as A, A1, B, C, C1, D, D1, H, K, Press guests and Radio-TV guests do not admit to the Capitol Building.

Tickets admitting to the Capitol Building and the Inaugural Platform must be presented at the door beneath the arch under the east steps of the Senate Wing and again at the east door of the Rotunda.

Tickets admitting to Sections A and A1 must be presented at the outside entrances thereto on the north (near the Senate Wing).

Tickets admitting to Section B must be presented at the outside entrances thereto on the south (near the House Wing).

Tickets admitting to Sections C, C1, D and D1 must be presented at the outside entrances thereto on the east or center section of the Stands.

Tickets admitting to the sections for the Press, Radio-TV, Periodical, Photographers and their guests, must be presented at the respective entrances.

Tickets admitting to Sections H and K must be presented at the entrances thereto on the north and south of East Capitol Street and the Capitol Plaza.

Admission to Senate Wing and President's Platform—Automobiles

No person except Senators and former Senators will be admitted to the Senate Wing of the Capitol, or to the President's Inaugural Platform without a card signed by the Chairman of the Committee on Arrangements.

Senate and House employees will be admitted to the Senate and House Wings of the Capitol by cards issued by the respective Sergeant at Arms.

All vehicles, except those bearing a special automobile pass, will be excluded from the Capitol Grounds until after the conclusion of the ceremonies.

Regulations for the Capitol Building

All doors of the Rotunda will be closed and passageways leading thereto will be kept clear. No person will be permitted to pass from the House Wing through the Rotunda except Members of the House of Representatives and their officers. The Members and officers will be provided with cards of admission.

The Capitol Building will be closed on the night of January 19 and kept closed until after the Inaugural ceremonies.

The Sergeant at Arms of the Senate, the Sergeant at Arms of the House, and the Staff Director of the Joint Committee are charged with the execution of these arrangements.
